

Maxeon Announces Closing of Public Offering of Ordinary Shares

SINGAPORE, April 20, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Maxeon Solar Technologies, Ltd. ("Maxeon") (NASDAQ: MAXN) today announced the closing of its previously announced public offering of $125.0 million of ordinary shares at a public offering price of $18.00 per share.

In addition, Maxeon today announced the closing of its previously announced sale of 1.87 million ordinary shares, to an affiliate of Tianjin Zhonghuan Semiconductor in a private placement exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, pursuant to a stock purchase agreement, dated April 13, 2021, at a sale price equal to the price to the public in the public offering.

The net proceeds from the public offering and private placement were approximately $150.8 million after giving effect to the underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses in the public offering. Maxeon intends to use a portion of the net proceeds from the public offering and private placement for general corporate purposes, which is expected to include funding its previously announced Performance line expansion and may also include ramping up production and development of next-generation Maxeon 7, increasing manufacturing capacity for Maxeon 5 and 6, research and development and other projects.

Morgan Stanley and BofA Securities are serving as joint book-running managers and as the representatives of the underwriters for the Offering. J Wood Capital Advisors LLC acted as financial advisor to Maxeon for the Offering. An effective registration statement on Form F-3 (File Nos. 333-248564 and 333-255263) relating to these securities has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). The offering was made only by means of the prospectus in that registration statement and the related prospectus supplement.
