

Maxeon Solar Technologies Announces Changes to Board of Directors

SINGAPORE, June 8, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Maxeon Solar Technologies, Ltd. (NASDAQ:MAXN) (the Company), a global leader in solar innovation and channels, today announced the appointment of Steve Leonard as an independent non-executive director to Maxeon's board of directors, effective June 7, 2021. Mr. Leonard is an international leader with more than 30 years of private and public sector experience in the technology industry in Asia and Europe.

Steve Leonard currently serves as CEO of Singularity University, a global organization dedicated to helping entrepreneurial leaders better understand the opportunities created by exponential technologies to positively impact companies, communities and countries around the world. Mr. Leonard also currently serves as an independent non-executive director at Singapore Post Ltd. (SingPost), an international leader in e-commerce logistics and services, and AsiaSat, a privately held Hong Kong-based satellite operator. He serves on the advisory boards of several universities and organizations, including Cambridge Innovation Capital, a deep-tech focused venture capital firm with strong links to the University of Cambridge in England.

"Steve's background within the technology industry, as well as his experience with impact and sustainability initiatives, brings capabilities and experiences that will significantly contribute to our goals for Maxeon," said Dr. Kevin Kennedy, Chairman of Maxeon's board of directors. "We are delighted to welcome Steve to the board."

According to Maxeon's CEO Jeff Waters, "Steve's expertise in technology-driven transformation and the application of emerging technologies for social impact will provide us invaluable perspectives as we continue to execute on our global growth strategy and enhance shareholder value. Steve is joining the board of Maxeon at a very exciting time, and I'm looking forward to working closely with him in this role."

Steve Leonard commented, "I am thrilled to join Maxeon's board of directors. I am committed to working with entrepreneurs, investors and senior leaders who tackle important challenges in areas that can improve the sustainability of the planet and the lives of people. The production of sustainable energy is a hugely important area for humanity. Maxeon has what it takes to truly shape the future in this area: a strong reputation for leading solar panel technology and innovation, a flourishing global brand and solid channels, and a unique, focused approach to the utility scale business. I look forward to working with Kevin and Jeff and the entire board to contribute to the company's success."

Maxeon also announced the resignation of Chee Keong Yap as a director of the Company effective June 7, 2021. Mr. Yap's resignation is not a result of any disagreement with the Company or its board and the Company thanks him for his service and contributions.
